Approx. 10-20 people on Parliament Hill, approx. 300-400 on Wellington and the surrounding streets
Police resources continue to work with the group in Confederation Park
Police resources have been engaging with the BIA and the community around the outside perimeter

Police resources are aware of a demonstration at 474 Elgin (OPS police station)
SPVG continue to monitor the group of approx. 200 people in the parking lot near the Chaudière Bridge
House of Commons has adjourned for the weekend
Police resources are preparing for increased crowds this evening until the end of the weekend
There are 14 possible convoys arriving between today (Feb 4th) and Saturday Feb 5th. The # of participants and vehicles is undetermined.

The current status of the interprovincial bridges are as follows:

Macdonald-Cartier Bridge is open

Alexandra Bridge is closed

Portage Bridge is closed but open southbound to essential workers with work ID

Chaudière Bridge is open

Champlain Bridge is open

There continues to be significant traffic congestion in the downtown core and on the interprovincial bridges which is expected to persist. Please check the City of Ottawa Traffic Management's social media for updates and leave plenty of time for travel.

Police will remain on site throughout the night to monitor the situation.

This will be the final update for the evening, pending any change in the current environment.

Updates will begin again tomorrow morning.

Approx. 75-100 people on Parliament Hill, approx. 100 people on Wellington and the surrounding streets

At Sussex/Rideau, police resources are aware of a makeshift stage on back of trailer with speakers, as well as an igloo in the middle of intersection. The PLTs are engaged but the group has not been receptive in the past

There will be increased OPS uniformed presence over the weekend

Gatineau police and Gatineau fire are onsite in the parking lot next to Chaudière bridge

One of the possible counter-protests may be cancelled for Feb 5th due to security concerns

Bridge closures remain unchanged at this time
